

Dear Sponsor,

Do you remember how exciting it was to get your hands on a new instrument in music class, or how proud you felt when you tried on your new sports uniform for the first time, or going to a local swimming pool with your family as a kid? Your contributions to the Adam Craig Foundation (ACF), a Washington State 501(c)3 Non-Profit Organization, can make those feelings continue for children in our community.

Festivalgoers will celebrate our 7th Annual Four Square Mile Music Festival for two-nights, July 27th and 28th, in Tenino, WA. ACF is seeking sponsors and/or donors to cover the costs of hosting this event. Generous donors like you make it possible for all proceeds from the festival to go directly back into the community and are key to our success. Over the past five years, our close-knit community has been very thankful to receive:

- The opportunity for 6th graders, who otherwise would not be able to attend with their class, to participate in outdoor education camp
- 30 guitars, as well as a mixer for the Tenino Elementary School
- Matching uniforms for the Tenino High School band, which was so appreciated by them (they had been wearing black sweatpants), 50 jackets for the track team, and two Sousaphones.
- Neo2's and iPads for Parkside Elementary School so that students in grades K-2 could practice math and spelling on up to date technology
- Funds to youth soccer, youth football, high school basketball, girls fast-pitch, and the City of Tenino's Quarry Pool.
- Black turf at Tenino High School's stadium

The Adam Craig Foundation's mission is to support local organizations, groups, and leagues that directly impact the lives of children in a very positive way, and undoubtedly enrich our community.

ACF was created after Tenino native, Adam Craig Seaunier, moved to Nashville Tennessee and found success in the music industry. Adam's love for Tenino and the State of Washington motivated him to 'give back' and his fundraising efforts began in 2007 to raise money for the victims of devastating floods in the local area, as well as for the Lakewood Fallen Officers.

Adam is now a recording artist with Broken Bow Records and staff writer for Sony ATV/Tree, Nashville. He co-wrote Parmalee's hit single, "Close Your Eyes" which charted at #3 on the Country Billboard Charts! Adam also wrote "Church Pew or Bar Stool" and "Fast Lanes" recorded by country super star, Jason Aldean. Adam's success in Nashville (Music City, USA) has never caused him to lose sight of his down-home roots or his commitment to helping those in our community who have been following and cheering him on from the very beginning.
